Concorde Fire Joins Elite Clubs National League - Thursday, April 30, 2009

Concorde Fire has joined the Elite Clubs National League (ECNL) as a Member Club of the Inaugural 2009-2010 Season. The ECNL has selected 40 of the top youth girls' clubs in the country to compete in the U15 - U17 age groups in a national league. Each team will have a 12-game season at the national showcase events (Eclipse Select Challenge Cup, Final IV Showcase, Disney Soccer Showcase, Las Vegas College Showcase, and PDA Showcase) during the year and end with the ECNL National Championship in Seattle, WA. Executive Director, Gregg Blasingame remarks, "This is an exciting time for our girl's program to be apart of the growing trend of the development of the elite female soccer player. It is a credit to our coaches and players that we have been recognized on the national level in the short time our girl's program has existed."

U14 Girl's Qualified for Regionals - Monday, April 27, 2009

The U14 Girls Concorde Fire South Elite, coached by Mac Williams, have already qualified for 2009 Region III Southern Regional Championships. Regionals will be held in Frisco and Plano, TX from June 19-24, 2009. Their 1-0 win today against Ponte Ved ra Storm (FL) in the Region III Premier League East secured second place for the season. Since two teams automatically qualify to Regionals this season, they will be playing in Texas this summer. The team finished the year with 25 points and 8-2-1 record, scoring 17 goals and only allowing 6 against. Congrats!!

Alabi's Report From Mexico - Wednesday, April 22, 2009
